Valentine's Day presents the biggest date night of the year, and that calls for some especially romantic and decadent dishes.

From steak to lobster and caviar, these are dishes destined to create a memorable evening.

At Marcellino Ristorante in Scottsdale, handmade, torn pasta sheets are sautéed with made-from-scratch sweet Italian sausage and a light truffle-butter sauce. The dish is topped with the diamond of the culinary world, shavings of black truffles. "For a special occasion like Valentine's Day, a meal should be celebrated and savored. To spark romance, treat your loved one to the finest and most alluring ingredients. Coveted for centuries as a natural aphrodisiac, truffles emit a warmth and earthy aroma that delight and awaken the senses," said Marcellino Verzino, Chef/Owner of Marcellino Ristorante.
